

HOW TO REMOVE CONTENT ID CLAIMS

To remove copyright claims from Identifyy registered tracks visit this page:

<https://www.haawk.com/whitelist>

and fill the form with the required info, including:

1. The link of YouTube video.
2. The purchase code OR license certificate info (you get the first one only if you have licensed the track at AudioJungle.net; you get the second one only if you have an active subscription on Envato Elements).

Envato AudioJungle customers can download the purchase code file from the Download section of their account.

Envato Elements active subscribers are provided with a license certificate which can be accessed when downloading and registering the item and also via the 'My downloads' page.

Please note: Identifyy support will likely take a few hours (if not minutes) to remove the claim when you send the request during their time zone working hours.

If you plan to monetize your video, publish it first as Unlisted to make the claim appear, then contact Identifyy support asking to remove it. At that point you can set the status of the video to Public and start to monetize from the beginning.
